THE TIMES-DISPATCH GENEALOGICAL COLUMN

In the article of January 1st, giving a view of the old "Windle Knowe" home of the Minors, it was but an introduction or opening wedge to the great Minor family of Virginia, in which we propose to follow up, with the aid of the "Gale Hill" and "Ridgegate," each of which are noted homesteads of the Minor descendants.

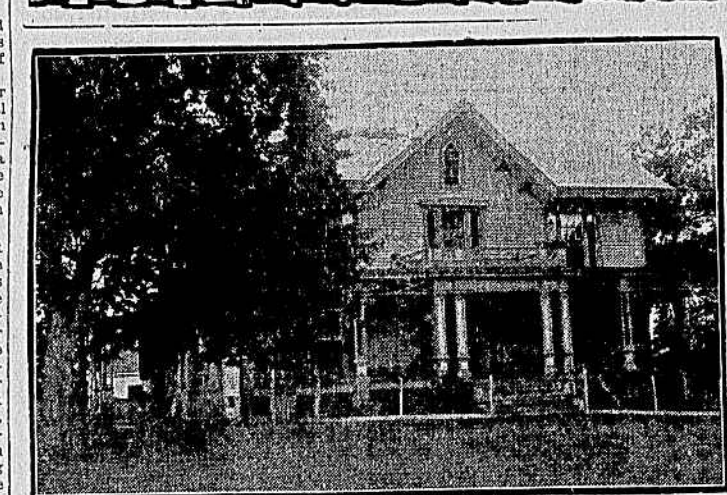

We give here with "Gale Hill," seated on the banks of the winding Rappahannock as it circles along the western foot-hills of the southwest mountains of Albemarle. In our first article we gave the Minor descent as that of Norman, the original as being "Minor," since which we learn from good authority that the first emigrant of the family to America was a Dutch sailor named Ludas Mynder, who settled in Middlesex county, Va., some time about the middle of the Seventeenth Century.

His wife's name is not known. He left a son, Ludas Mynder (2), Jr. They were members of the Church of England, as their names are to be found on the parish records of their time. Their surname was first spelled Mynder, their name was first spelled Minor, the third generation was represented by Garrett Minor, son of Ludas Mynder, Jr. (or Mynder). He was called Col. Garrett Minor, and married Mary Vivian Terrell, daughter of Richmond Terrell, Col. Minor had large landed possessions in Louisa county, and his place, "Sunning Hill," was famous for its hospitality. He raised a large family of sons and daughters. One of his sons, John Minor, of "Topping Castle," Rappahannock county, was equally as famous for his great hospitality and good judgment. He married a Miss Carr, and from them are descended some of the most distinguished men of Albemarle and Louisa, among whom was General John Minor, who lived in or near Fredericksburg a century ago, and whose grandson was Dr. C. L. C. Minor, Berkeley Minor, Esq., Prof. J. M. Blackford, of the Episcopal High School, at Alexandria, and the Blackfords of Lynchburg, Va.

Among the most prominent descendants of John Minor, of "Topping Castle," were the late Prof. John B. Minor, of the University of Virginia, who was born in Louisa county, 1813, and occupied the Chair of Law for a longer period than any other professor since the establishment of the college; also, there was Lucian Minor, his brother, professor at Williamsburg in 1830, and lived with his uncle until the latter's death, after which he removed the first building, which was a plain old wooden structure of that day built of logs and rough framing, and erected the present brick structure, with improvement which then began. This was ter; by his second was one daughter, Lucy, who married Colonel Robert N. Trice, who lived at "Machunk," and was the father of the present Dr. Dabney Trice, of Charlottesville, Va. Dr. John Minor, the third son of John, of "Topping Castle," became a physician of distinction; he married Jane Bell, a Scotch lady, and was the first to settle at "Gale Hill," where he died in 1841, and leaving no children, left the place to his nephew, William W. Minor, son of his brother Dabney. It is said that upon this time Dabney, Dr. John Minor and Dr. John Gilmer, of "Edgemont," were the only two practicing physicians between Charlottesville and Gordonsville and the surrounding counties.

Mr. William W. Minor, Sr., came to "Gale Hill" in 1830, and lived with his uncle until the latter's death, after which he removed the first building, which was a plain old wooden structure of that day built of logs and rough framing, and erected the present brick structure, with improvement which then began. TREATMENT OF PILES Permanence of Cure the True Test. Many so-called pile remedies will afford the user slight temporary relief, and the majority of those afflicted do not expect more than a temporary cure.

The average sufferer, after having tried every preparation recommended for the cure of piles, comes to the conclusion that there is no cure except by an operation, and rather than undergo the "last resort," he suffers on, resigned to the situation, so far as may be. The attention of those interested is invited to the following experience. "After ten years of suffering from blind, bleeding and protruding piles, and after using every remedy I could hear of with only one benefit, I finally bought a fifty-cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used it with such good results I bought next a dollar box, which finished up the job. This was nearly six years ago, and as far as piles is concerned I am cured, and have never felt a symptom of them since. Many others have used this remedy with success, and I can recommend it to sufferers with piles." C. H. Potts, Burlington, Kan. "Testimony like this should convince the most skeptical the Pyramid Pile Cure is not only cures, but cures to stay cured. It is in the form of a suppository, can be applied in the privacy of the home, directly to the parts affected, and does its work quickly and painlessly. Druggists generally sell this famous remedy for fifty cents a package, and sufferers are urged to buy a package now and give it a trial to-night. Accept no substitutes. A little book describing the causes and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Pile Cure Co., Marshall, Mich., and same will be sent free to any address for the asking."

Editor Genealogical Column:

Dear Sir:—Will you give any data concerning the Anthony family of Virginia prior to 1741? Mark Anthony married, 1741, Elizabeth Clarke. Their children were:

- 1.—James.
- 2.—Joseph.
- 3.—Thomas.
- 4.—John.
- 5.—Michael married, about 1735, Sarah Tate, of Lynchburg, Va., from whom one son, Michael, was born, who married, 1817, Rebecca DuBoise, of Sumpter county, S. C. They moved to Wilkes county, Ga.
- 6.—Elizabeth, married Candier.
- 7.—Agnes.
- 8.—Mary (or Melille), married Josiah Carter.
- 9.—Penelope, married Johnston.
- 10.—Sallie, married Thomas Casper.
- 11.—Judith, married Ware.

Will be glad for any information of the above. "SUBSCRIBER."

QUERIES.

To "Mrs. B. J. B." Richmond, Va.: The wife of Martin Key was Ann (but whose daughter is not known). They had twelve children, many of whom moved to the South and West after they grew up. Some of them moved to Kentucky, and, it is believed, intermarried with some of the descendants of John Edwin, of Bourbon county, 1780. John Edwin patented 23,000 acres of land, which one of the Keys—it is not certain, but think it was John Key, son of Martin—who settled in Montgomery county, Ky.

One of the daughters of Col. John Danbridge, who married Martha (afterwards wife of General Washington), was Susanna, who, it seems, married a Clark; but of their descendants we cannot clearly trace. From the "Meriwether genealogy" we find that Meriwether Smith, son of Lucy Allen, daughter of Philip Lee, and widow of Thos. Clarke, his son, George William Smith, was Governor of Virginia, 1811, and lost his life in the burning of the Richmond Theatre.

Johnston.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Dear Sir:—Please inform me through your query column if you have ever published the genealogy of the Johnston family. I am very anxious of learning the antecedents of my great-grandfather, Captain Gideon Johnston, of Fauquier county, Va., where he died. He was a captain in the Revolutionary War and drew a pension up to 1830, the year of his death, at eighty years of age. Any information of his ancestors will be gratefully received. "C. M. P."

Pollard.

In our article on Pollard, issue of January 1st, our correspondent who sent in the material for us somewhat in error on a few points. Below a descendant gives the following corrections: "E. C. M.: Dear Sir:—Thanks are due for the valuable information in your column of the 15th. But I call attention to a mistake. Robert Pollard, the father of Ellen Hackley Pollard, who married Howell Lewis, was not a brother of Joseph. Joseph was born 1761, his brother Robert, a few years later. This Robert had a son, Richard, who went to Culpeper. His wife was Elizabeth Coleman. (Can any one tell to what family of Colemans she belonged?) Their son, Robert, was born 1793, and married 1794, a daughter of William and Ellen (Hackley) Underwood. Their daughter, Ellen Hackley Pollard, born 1796, married Howell Lewis. This is the Robert Pollard who went to Richmond from Culpeper, was vestryman in old St. John's Church, treasurer of James River Company, 1793, State agent for securing arms, &c. It seems that Joseph and Robert Pollard had an uncle, William, whose daughter, Elizabeth, married a "Toby." This Elizabeth was born in 1761, the same year as Joseph. She could not have been his sister, for she (Elizabeth) married Philip Pendleton. The record reads this way: Elizabeth Pollard, born 1761, died 1769, married Christopher Toby, born April, 1694, died March 26, 1762, aged 103 years; issue—1. Lucy, born 1721, died 1794, married, 1740, Edward Toby; 2. Elizabeth, born 1723, died 1788, married ——— Booth; 3. Mary, born 1725, died 1794, married Wyatt; Thomas, born 1728, died 1780, Christopher Toby was the son of Thomas Toby, of Gloucester, who was the son of Thomas Toby, of England, who came to Norfolk county in 1637.

I find also, as of interest in this family connection, that George Rogers married Frances Pollard, issue—1. Edmund; 2. Robert; 3. George; 4. Mary; 5. John; 6. John Rogers, who married Mary Shirley; 7. John Rogers, who married Mary Shirley; 8. John Rogers, who married Mary Shirley; 9. John Rogers, who married Mary Shirley; 10.
